TRENDS OF THE TIMES

(FROM PARADE Manila, 8/6)

By Franco Manuel

Men's clothes are joining the color parade in America. Not only are there changes in bathroom fixtures, automobiles, neon signs, motion pictures and kitchen furnitures, but everything from women's toe nails to their hair tips. This is the observation of Raymond Twyeffort, American stylist. This is an age of individuality and newly-found freedom. The world is tiring of dullness.

America is dictating the course of the renaissance in color. America is dressed up—tired business men are turning to pastel dinner coats, bright silk waistcoats, astounding checks and stripes in a variety of colors, colored shoes, colored hats and colored accessories. America has been suffering from the pernicious anemia for lack of color. Here is a proof that the world is putting on much more color to everything . . . even as the nudists like to have sun-tanned bodies for their pale-dead beings.

* * * *

Most of the ministers and priests alike of all religious orders are too weak and lazy about their bounden responsibilities. All of them should not hold their peace and should view the situation with danger. There are so many enemies that tend to undermine and threaten the social life of our twentieth century civilization. The degeneration of the moving-picture business should arouse a righteous indignation of all self-respecting people who can demand for the right of decency and that "indecency should be opposed in any form." There are too many things today—common scenes and incidents that are immoral and grossly licentious. There is an increasing avalanche of divorce, confirmed by so many law courts. And more than that there is the unchecked evil, largely indulged in by people of wealth and position, which destroys the sanctity of marriage and gives to it the character of legalized prostitution. Our leaders as well as the different nations of the world are suffering from a moral sag that has sapped their strength, impaired their confidence, exhausted their reserves, and reduced them to the low planes of impotence. Excited tastes, passions and ambitions are truly declared to be symptoms of a degenerating race, "fast losing its sense of moral values."

PERSONALS...

(By E. Mirasol)

Miss Ceferina Agustin, lone Filipino woman graduate of the Glad Tidings Bible Institute of San Francisco, California, is in town this week. While here she is a guest at the Susannah Wesley Home. Rev. B. F. S. Moore of the Glad Tidings Mission, of Honolulu, invited her to give an evening message for the congregation Sunday. With her is Miss Elsie Simpkins, also a graduate of the same school and who has a call for the Hilo mission work. Both will work together for the Lord, they declared. They were received and heard by an enthusiastic congregation at the Glad Tidings Mission here Friday night. Franco Manuel, assisting member at the local mission, said: "After all one true Christian Filipino young woman is in Hawaii."

Miss Charing Abelino, honor graduate of the McKinley High School, '33, is connected with the Social Service Bureau of Honolulu. She is one of the youngest to ever land a job in the bureau. It has been revealed. With her in the same department is Mrs. Angeles Avecilla, M. A. graduate of the University of Minnesota. She was formerly Miss Angeles Manguer and about two years ago was married to Alfonso Avecilla, insurance man and a Master of law graduate from one of the mainland universities.

Miss Rose Ordinario, popular Garden Island belle, is visiting in Honolulu this week-end but is leaving for the Big Island Tuesday afternoon. She expects to stay in Hawaii till January.

TO AVOID WAR SELASSIE WILL NOT PAY ITALY

No Concessions Without Compensation, Says Ethiopian Emperor

Our Liberty and Our Life Had Its Origin In Jerusalem Says The Ruler

Emperor Haile Selassie reaffirmed today that he is unwilling to hand over one cent to Premier Mussolini as the price of calling off the 2000,000 troops massed across the border in Italian Somaliland.

The Emperor's voice trembled as he declared readiness to fight and disclaimed any doubt of what the result would be.

"We cannot make any political, economic or territorial concessions to Italy without compensation, the emperor asserted to the press interviewers at Adis Ababa.

"Nor can we give Italy bribes in any other form to purchase immunity from attack."

The emperor sat in his palace and reviewed thousands of modernly equipped warriors who clatterred past mulespem who clatterred past on mules and horses.

LIVE LIKE LIONS

Apparently the sight inspired him, for he said stoutly:—

"Men who live among lions are unlikely to fear any human enemy."

The emperor further said that acceptance of any mandate, whether American, Italian, British or French, would undermine the keystone of Ethiopian independence.

Again he said: "During our centuries of liberty we have demonstrated our capacity to rule ourselves without foreign tutelage.

"Our and our life, which had origin on the sacred soil of Jerusalem long before the Roman empire was born, are precious to us beyond all other considerations.

"We will defend them to the last drop of blood."

His interviewer then asked: "Mussolini says he wishes to civilize Ethiopia. What does your majesty say to that?"

"God forbid that Italy should give us such a civilization through the instrumentality of war.

"One is the negation of the other."

VICTOR IN P. I. ELECTION SLAIN

Shot by Assassin While In Own Window

MANILA—The Manila Herald reported this week that Rep. Julio Nalundasan, Coalitionist who won an Ilocos Norte province seat in the commonwealth assembly at Tuesday's election was shot to death last night by an assassin.

Nalundasan, who campaigned on the same platform as President-elect Quezon, was shot while standing at the window of his home in the town of Batac, the dispatch stated. Identity of the assassin was unknown.

Ilocos Norte is the stronghold of Bishop Gregorio Aglipay, unsuccessful presidential candidate, and Batac the bishop's native town. Nalundasan politically attacked Aglipay during the hitter campaign.

Aglipay lost in most of the districts in northern Luzon, according to reliable reports.

VICE PRESIDENT

SERGIO OSMENIA

Famous running mate of Pres. Manuel Quezon in the Coalition Party that won in the Commonwealth elections Tuesday in an overwhelming majority. Senator Sergio Osmena polled 475,838 votes which is eight-tenths of the total votes casted for that office.

BALBOA DAY TO BE OBSERVED BY P. I., AND JAPAN

Pan-Pacific Union Observed Day for Over Twenty Years Already

According to Miss A. T. Satterthwaite, secretary of the Pan-Pacific Union, Balboa Day is to be celebrated on September 25 at Puller Hall Y.W.C.A. during the noon hour. The Pan-Pacific Associations in the Philippines and in Japan will also participate in the celebration by exchanging cables with the head office in Honolulu. The central office has not as yet heard what their programs will be but Thursday a congratulatory cable was sent to President Quezon and also asked him to extend Balboa Day greetings to the Pan-Pacific Association of Philippines.

The 422 anniversary of the discovery of the Pacific Ocean by Vasco Nunes de Balboa has already been arranged here. Special program of folk dances by Portuguese, Puerto Rican and Filipino residents in Hawaii, showing the Spanish influence in the Pacific.

Balboa will appear in person. Mrs. M. L. Jamtoc and Mr. Jesus Cayaban will give the "Carinosa" Dance. There will be Rhumba dance numbers by two Puerto Rican girls and a Portuguese number. Balboa Day falls on September 25 but the celebration will be observed on Monday.

For over twenty years Balboa or Pan-Pacific Day has been observed by the Pan-Pacific Union and its affiliated associations throughout the Pacific area to commemorate the discovery of the Pacific Ocean by the first European, Vasco Nunez Balboa. Balboa, a patron saint of the Pacific, was one of the most admirable characters among the Spanish conquistadores.

DEMOCRATS READY TO FACE GOP ON ISSUES

Senator William Gibbs McAdoo, 71, honeymooning presently at Los Angeles with his 25-year old wife, predicted Wednesday that President Roosevelt will be re-elected for 1936. He said "there is not any serious opposition. It would be foolish for the Republicans to make a campaign issue of the constitution, however we would be glad to have them to do so."

Post Master General James Farley in his opponent visit to Hawaii said that "Roosevelt re-election is in the bag."

OPPONENTS OF QUEZON CLAIM VOTING FRAUD

Aguinaldo, Aglipay Protest Election; General Snubs The President-Elect

New Government To Seek Entrance As a Member of the League of Nations

The cry of fraud was raised in Manila today by both Gen. Aguinaldo and Bishop Aglipay, who were defeated by Manuel Quezon in Tuesday's presidential election.

"I am convinced the result does not reflect the true spontaneous will of the electorate," said Gen. Aguinaldo in explaining why he had not offered congratulations to the winner.

Bishop Aglipay proposed a new balloting under stricter regulations. He charged voters were intimidated by threats and official returns were tampered with.

The election, the bishop said, was "illegal, dirty and null."

Leaders of Gen. Aguinaldo's national socialist party suffered and asserted they had decided to complain to Washington that Gov. Gen. Frank Murphy had not been neutral but had favored Manuel Quezon.

WOULD JOIN LEAGUE

[illegible] that the new commonwealth will seek permission from the United States to apply for membership in the League of Nations "if it doesn't mock up," was advanced today by President elect Manuel Quezon.

He said American permission would be required to enable the Philippines to assume the obligations of the league covenant.

NO TARIFF INCREASE

Manuel Quezon predicted the legislature meeting Monday again would fail to act on the request of 65 congressmen for an increase in tariff to protect American cotton goods from Japanese competition in the islands.

ANTI-TB SEAL SALE ON NOV.

Everybody Requested to Give Aid in Battle Against TB

Surpassing any previous year, nearly three-quarters of a ton of 1935 Christmas seals arrived recently at the Tuberculosis Association of the territory of Hawaii.

These penny health stickers, amounting to five and a quarter million in number, will be sold throughout the islands during mid-November in an effort to finance the Tuberculosis association on each island.

Brimming with cheer, this year's seals show a young lady of the 1890's mailing a letter in one of the first street mail boxes of the country. The seals can always be identified by the double barred cross, international symbol of the fight against tuberculosis.

With increased activities in rehabilitation, health classes, tuberculin testing program, health education and research, and with plans for further expansion in the scope of the work of the Tuberculosis Association of Hawaii, greater returns this year thus, even before are anticipated in the seal sale.

With the arrival of the Christmas seals, the office of the local association has been the scene of unusual activity. Mailing lists are being prepared and thousands of letters are being addressed for mailing.

MANUEL QUEZON TO BE FIRST PRESIDENT OF THE ISLANDS; MOST COLORFUL FIGURE IN P.I.

Manuel Quezon, victor in the Philippine commonwealth presidential election, has for years championed the cause of independence for the Philippines.

He was born August 19, 1878, in the small town of Baler, Tayabas. He attended school there, was graduated from San Juan de Letran college in Manila and obtained his law degree on 1903 at Santo Tomas university in Manila.

Strangely enough, during the Philippine insurrection, he served on the staff of Gen Emilio Aguinaldo, now one of the strongest political figures in Philippine politics.

His public career started when he became prosecuting attorney for Mindoro province. He then served in the same capacity in his native province, then as governor of the province and then as member of the Philippine assembly. From 1909 to 1916 he was resident commissioner to Washington and then became the president of the Philippine senate, a position he had held since that time.

Senator Quezon was a political but not a personal foe of the late Gov. Gen. Leonard Wood. He made repeated trips to Washington in the interests of Philippine independence, opposing the Hare-Hawes-Cutting act under which the commonwealth is now being established.

MANUEL L. QUEZON

Although he became seriously ill in 1922 and 1930 from tuberculosis and was thought at that time to be a dying man Senator Quezon continued his efforts to obtain independence for the islands

Inaugural Day Here Will Be Observed By All Filipinos

Under the auspices of the Filipino Federated organizations a gala Inaugural Day celebration is being planned for the Filipinos in the Territory. Already a benefit dance at the Waikiki pavilion and a boxing smoker at the Civic Auditorium were already sponsored by the associations' group the last two weeks.

Eusebio Fernandez in a statement recently said "The association needs at list $1000 to make the inaugural celebration a success."

Radio broadcast which will link Hawaii and the Philippines through the KGMB-MZRM network will take place on November 15 at the Princess theater during the noon hour.

Speakers from the territorial and local governments as well as the different consuls in Hawaii have already been approached to give their congratulatory messages to the officials in the Philippines.

A banquet will be held on the eve of November 15 and a luncheon at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel preceeding the broadcast hour. The broadcast will fall between 1 to 2, it is revealed.

HAWAII'S STATEHOOD IS LEADERS' PLEAS

Four prominent Republican leaders in the territory spoke at the McKinley auditorium Friday, in defense and attack against opponents of Hawaii's statehood pleas. Each speaker was frank and every one of them emphasized the fact that "the territory must combat and break down a universal feeling that an element of race exist in an almost impenetrable bar." The speakers were Frank C. Atherton, Judge A. G. Robertson, David L. Crawford and Victor S. K. Houston.

MacArthur Gets Formal Orders To Serve In Islands

War department orders in Washington detailing Gen. Douglas MacArthur to special duty in the Philippines were issued today.

Gen. MacArthur, who will be relieved off duty as chief of staff December 15, will assist the commonwealth in establishing military defenses.

The orders issued today said he would "confer and advise with the president of the commonwealth under such conditions and arrangements as may be mutually determined."

He will in addition carry out such instructions as may be given by the secretary of war."

ELECT QUEZON AS THE FIRST P. I. EXECUTIVE

Victory Conclusively Indicated by Returns; Osmenia Vice President

To Take Office Under New Commonwealth Regime November 15 for 6 Years

MANILA.—An avalanche of votes in Tuesday's election swept Manuel Quezon into office as the first president of the Philippine commonwealth.

Reports of the returns from all parts of the Philippines indicated conclusively Quezon's election of his running mate Sergio Osmenia as vice-president of the new government.

While official returns throughout the whole archipelago was still to be completed Tuesday, Manuel Quezon, jubilant over his overwhelming success gave the Filipino people his thanks.

Complete returns from Manila and in 33 provinces out of the 48 provinces gave

Quezon, 498, 237

Gen. Emilio Aguinaldo, 152,-963

Bishop Gregorio Aglipay, 68,-976.

OSMENIA FAR IN LEAD

In the vice-presidential race, Senator Sergio Osmenia, Quezon's running mate on the Coalition ticket was far in the lead with 475,838 votes. Trailing him were former Justice of the Supreme court Raymundo Melina, Aguinaldo's partner on the National Socialist ticket, with 49,834 and Rep Nabong, vice-presidential candidate on the bishop's ticket, 23,618.

Assemblymen elected included House Speaker Quintin Paredes and former speaker of the house Manuel Roxas.

Popular as senate president and dominant political figure of the islands for years, Manuel Quezon won strength in every important district and carried Manila with an avalanche of votes.

VOTING IS PEACEFUL

Violence feared due to pre-election threats and the Sakdal uprising last May was singularly fashion to elect the Orient's first popularly chosen president.

The Coalition platform maintained that the independence problem is already solved and that in the future all national effort will be devoted toward assuring the coming of independence in a stable form.

Gen. Emilio Aguinaldo and Bishop Gregorio Aglipay, Quezon's opponents, with ill organized backing and without wide political experience, apparently were overwhelmed in every province, latest reports state

(Reuter)

NEW YORK.—Si Miss Landi nobelista at artista sa, ay maraming gawin upang mag-ukol ng isip tungkol sa pag-ibig at at nagpahayag upang isaalang-alang ang pagaasawa!' ayon sa kanyang pahayag.

Marami akung nobelang dapat sulatin at mga pelikulang dapat yariin!' ang paliwanag ni Miss Landi.

Hindi pa natatagalang si Miss Landi ay nagtame ng liborsio kay Mr. J. C. Lawrence, isang abogadong ingles.

Nang tanungin kung ibig na niyang mag-asawa sa isang amerikano, lumugon si Miss Landi ng ganito, "Ngunit iyan paghingi ng malaki sa aking amerikanismo. Wala akung panukalang magasawang muli. Ako ay lubhang maraming ginagawa, nguni't wala ring nakatiliyak. Gayon man, kung ako'y magaasawa ay dahil sa pag-ibig, at hindi ko isasaalang-alang ang lahi ng lalakeng pakakasalan ko."

SA AKING PAQBABALIK

Tunay at bayaan mung muli kung idaing na lahat gaya nang mga araw na lumipas. At, sa pagbabalik kung ito bayaan mo ring ikaw ay ibigin at mahalin nang nalanta kung pag-aasa! Bayan mung ikaw ay muli kung suyuin at suubin nang tapat at dalisay na pagsuyo. Sa pagbabalik ko ay itulut na ikaw ay ibigin at mahalin ang walang pagmamaliw. Sapagka't, sa pagbalik kung ito, ay taglay pa rin ang init nang iisa kung pag-ibig na inluluhog sa iyo! Dinggin mo kaya ang aking mga panambitan at hibik nang aking kaluluwang kalarolaro nang malungkot na gunitain sa buhay?.....

Magtapat ka sana!....--Maawa ka sa aking buhay na lipos nang lumbay at pighati; O! anong lupit mo sa akin.....?

Sa pagbabalik ko kaya ay ipagtapat mo ang nilalaman nang iyong puse?.....--Mahabag ka na kaya?--Maanong sa pagbabalik kung ito ay ilawit mo na ang iyong habag at nang sa gayon ay maligayahan na ako!

Marahil sa malaong panahong hindi nating pagkikita, ay hindi mo na marahil hinihintay ang aking pagbabalik at pamuling sariwain at buksan ang mga piping daing nang aking pusong malaon nang humihingi nang iyong kalinga. Ewan ko kung bakit magpahangga ngayon ay hindi man lamang magkamit nang habag at nang malbsan na yaring aking hirap na tinatagalay sa aking PAGBABALIK.....

COLORFUL MANUEL QUEZON

"Colorful" might be an overworked word in the Philippines where trees and plants are evergreen throughout the year. So is the personality of the man who has recently been elected to the presidency of the commonwealth government.

Manuel Quezon is as has always been a man who can't step out of character. Some persons elected to that most responsible seat in any republican form of government are colorful by nature, some are rather colorless, and there the matter ends. President-elect Quezon is always colorful and has what most leaders lack: an ability to project his personality beyond his physical presence.

Manuel Quezon has for many years campaigned for Philippine independence. He was not fighting oppression, nor even depression—because the Philippines was miraculously prosperous during all the years under America's tutelage. But, he was not satisfied with present conditions still and because of it he kept on hammering the doors of Congress and at the national consciousness of the Filipinos. He painted for his people a new kingdom in the Far East. He appealed to their pride. As the years unfolded, his following became a legion. Independence for the Filipinos became an obsession.

When the Hare-Hawes-Cutting bill was passed, restricting Philippine independence, Quezon rose in his might and fought ratification by his people. When it came to a vote he won overwhelmingly. He returned to Washington with new vigor, a new front, and finally after a hard struggle he won his battle. Quezon performed a near-miracle when he succeeded, for with him is a complete fool-proof majority in the law-making body of the government.

A successful statesman has the right time chosen for him by the accident of birth. Quezon rose to the heights by the sheer force of courage and intelligence. And more than that, he had dream-visions of a future liberated country which must rise in the Far East. He had those dreams colored with trial and error experiments in the field of politics.

After struggling hard to obtain the Jones Law, he was not satisfied; he demanded a better bill than the Hare-Hawes-Cutting and obtained the Tydings-McDuffie law. And what next?

He expects to do a lot more. That will only make him the more colorful and the archipelago's greatest contemporary hero.

Editor's Desk

Dear Mr. Editor:

The Filipino community, in general, I might say, is seriously wondering why you are not taking any active part in any communal affair. Your attitude so far has been very standoffish. We are at a loss to think why matters of great importance such as Rizal Day celebration or Commonwealth Inauguration activities, etc., have not been fully supported by you and that you, by right of your position, should be the true and rightful leader of our people. The reason why society fails today is that the intelligent stands-off and the rascals are let loose to run society.

Sept. 18. Hawaii Pinoy

• • • •

Dear Mr. Pinoy:

History is so replete with such examples as you have hinted and yet there are always some good reasons why men often times take that "stand-offish" attitude. Social history will give you a better light of the thing. I believe that man should fence himself with propriety and should not be handled by persons whom he thinks are not his superiors. It is wise to be lowly and humble, but when such virtues are only trampled with your ideas buried in the dust of men's iniquities, the best solution is to stand-off. There is a true animal familiarity found in the lower order of society—and that is, persons crave for recognition or of the single touch of a popular man. A "mixed multitude" as that found in Exodus are more of tinkling brass cymbals which cannot truly contribute harmony and beauty to man's life.

I believe you misunderstand me for my attitude. I am not a cooperationist but I am a supporter. What we call cooperationist is usually nothing but a compromiser, and I do not want to compromise. If I want to meddle in any community affair, it must be a real support. I am already growing weary of patched-up agreements. I believe we can help men most if we stand apart of them; when we grasp them, and will not permit them to grasp us.

Multitude and solitude are terms convertible by the active and sensitive mind. He who can think and can suspect is necessarily a part of society. I hope I have done something in the form of a healthy mental support to our community through my writing.

NEW DEALS: PAST, PRESENT, AND FUTURE

From the days of ancient Greece when Plato penned his concept of an ideal republic, many apostles of political, civil, and social reforms have arisen. Sir Thomas More, who lived in the days of the cruel tyrant, Henry VIII, had ample reasons for his convictions that a "New Deal" was sorely needed, hence he wrote his renowned "Utopia," the story of the imaginary island where perfection existed. Lord Francis Bacon, historian, scientist, and statesman, expressed his idealism in the classic treatise entitled, "The New Atlantis," and Herbert Spencer wrote of the "promised land."

A century ago at West Roxbury near Boston, Massachusetts, the colony of Brook Farm was established. Its founders hoped that it might serve as a model for many similar communistic establishments; but after seven years it went into bankruptcy and had to be abandoned.

Since then Robert Owen of Scotland and Henry George of the United States created widespread interest with schemes for earthly Edens.

With the ascension of Franklin D. Roosevelt to the presidency of the United States, the so-called "New Deal" was inaugurated, and a little later Technocracy tossed its philosophic bubble before the American public. But to the year 1934 and to the state of California are accorded the laurels of the birth of Utopian triplets—the EPIC Plan, the Utopian Society and the Townsend Old-Age Pension.

More recently the halcyon days of Utopian dreamland have been eclipsed by the sordid wranglings of its organized leaders, and the whole scheme appears fading into oblivion. But men will still dream.

Some years ago, Mr. G. Wells, of Great Britain, pictured the planet in the year 2050 A. D. as a vast garden peopled by a "new humanity" in which Isaiah's vision of warless world would be realized. Later, beholding "a dark curtain fall steadily, fold after fold, across the bright spectacle of hope," he exclaimed, "It looks like a walk-over for catastrophe!"

The great difficulty for man's Utopian concepts to be realized is that man's nature is not changed.

JESUS AND THE "NEW DEAL"

The Scriptures also present many prophecies concerning transformation and the fulfillment of those promises during our day. These assure us that the human race has almost reached the end trail, that Jesus Christ is about to terminate this earthly drama, and inaugurate heaven's "New Deal" all who will accept the gospel panacea.

Said Crist: "Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth." Matt. 5:5. Compare Prov. 11:31. God's Utopia will be a land of physical health where "the inhabitants shall not say, I am sick." (Isaiah 33: 24.) "Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf shall be unstopped. Then shall the lame man leap as an hart, and the tongue of the dumb sing." Isaiah 33:5,6.

God's Utopia will be a land without accidents, casualties, or sorrows; for He makes His people "a covenant of peace, they shall dwell safely in the wilderness, and sleep in the woods." Ezekiel 34:25. "God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away." Rev. 21:4.

God's Utopia will be a land of transcendent beauty. There will be no more boundless oceans. (Rev. 21:1), or tractless wastes. "The desert shall rejoice, and blossoms as the rose. It shall blossom abundantly, and rejoice even with joy." God's Utopia will be a land whose citizens are all perfect in character. "There shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth . . ." "Blessed are they that do His commandments, that they may have a right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city." Rev. 21:27.

God's Utopia will be a land whose capital and metropolis is a city of surpassing wonders. See Rev. 21. Such is a faint preview of the homland ere-long to be established. All clever man-made plans for an ideal world-state will never yield an earthly paradise but the plan of redemption concieved in infinite love and sacrifice, is soon to materialize gloriously. And good tidings! Christ's Utopian plan is only reserved to His sons and daughters. "And let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely." Rev. 22:17.
