The theme "The Fiesta" is befitting for tonight's event. A Filipino fiesta is never complete without a Queen. We will be witnesses of the coronation of the awesome Queen of Annak ti Kailokuan iti America (AKA), a gala presentation of one of the cultural Filipino traditions.

I wish to congratulate the officers and members of Annak ti Kailokuan iti America (AKA) for their commitment to perpetuate and to enlighten the local Filipino-Americans, Filipino immigrants and the mainstream community of the rich Filipino culture through Filipino dramas, pageantry, short stories and broadcasting.

My sincerest congratulations goes to the Mrs. Pacita Cabulera Saludez, the energetic President, for spearheading an Ilokano program in collaboration with OLELO shown on Channel 52 every Thursday, 9:30 pm. This program is an off-shoot of the newly enacted Language Access law.

To AKA's membership, continue your dedication and commitment to instill our Filipino pride to our youth through your cultural activities. They are the our FORCE and HOPE to reach the goals that our forefathers (the Sakadas) have paved for us.

Again, my felicitations to AKA's continued success.

Sincerely,

Cirvalina R. Longboy

Looking back 28 years ago is a long way to remember. That was July 4th 1986 when I organized this group. I raised my hands as the first President by Lt. Governor of Hawaii that time Benjamin Cayetano, our first Legal Adviser.

It gives me great pleasure to think that until now Annak Ti Kailokuan Iti America is still in its verdant field to accomplish its token objectives. To the faithful officers and members, thank you so much.

To the supportive Leaders of the Community, Kakailian ken gagayyem, agyamankami. Dakayo ti mamagballaigi kadagiti ganuat. Agbiag dagiti Ilokano iti America.
